DIELECTRIC FLUID RELEASE/SPILL RESPONSE & NOTIFICATION PROCEDURES

FOR ANY HIGH VOLTAGE ITEMS INCLUDING TRANSFORMERS, SWITCHES, CAPACITORS, POTHEADS, BALLASTS THAT CAN HAVE THE POTENTIAL TO CONTAIN POLYCHLORINATED BIPHENYLS (PCBs)

Is the item being transported or is it in-service? Transported In-Service Stop the vehicle immediately and call 098-911-1911 and Evacuate yourself and others from the let them know dielectric fluid is involved. spill location. Alert others to stay away. Contact Shop Foreman Provide: immediately. a. Your name, phone number, and location of spill b. Time spill occurred c. The serial number of the equipment d. Has the release stopped? Shop Foreman should notify the e. Is there a fire, rain, spill spreading or draining, Environmental Support Team media/reporters taking photos, etc? Supervisor immediately at 090-6861-Note: The Fire Department will contact Environmental and 4012. determine if other parties require response. Provide: a. Camp location b. Pole number or transformer station/housing number Contain spill. Control vehicle and pedestrian traffic. c. Serial number of Without physically contacting the fluid and using proper transformer/equipment PPE (Nitrile gloves), use spill clean-up supplies to dike or d. Nearest building number dam the spill to keep it from spreading. The spill clean-up materials should be applied to divert fluids away from dirt, grass, and/or drains. Secure the area until Environmental Support Team Personnel arrive. Stay Immediately notify: away from the release and keep others Shop Foreman: away from the area. Do not walk into Duty Phone: or touch any spilled dielectric fluid. 24hr Phone: ____ Unit Environmental Rep (UER): Duty Phone: _____ Follow instructions of Environmental personnel. Do not go back into the 24hr Phone: _____ area unless environmental personnel

Take notes of all equipment and materials that came into contact with the fluid and report this information to the Environmental Support Team when they arrive on-scene. The Environmental Support Team will coordinate with the Camp Environmental Coordinator to prepare USFJ FORM 50 SPILL REPORT state that it is safe to do so.